

Aree protette
Po piemontese

RISO AMICO +

Il riso sostenibile che rispetta l'ambiente e valorizza l'impegno dei risicoltori

Invitación a un webinar internacional sobre Biodiversidad y Arroz

24 April 2024 10:00 (online)

- Francesco Vidotto, professor of Agronomy at the University of Turin and coordinator of the project: “Methodology and structure of RisoAmico+, focusing on improving ecosystem services and adoption of resource-efficient and environmentally sustainable practices”
- Enrico Rivella, biologist of the Environmental Agency of Piemonte Region: “Selection of practices and indicators that can guarantee the protection, restoration and maintenance of rice areas of high natural value”
- Alice Cerutti, rice farmer and wetland restoration expert: “From the naturalistic measures to the LIFE proposal “RICE FOR LIFE”: tools for building a future European collaboration”
- Maite Martínez-Eixarch, Néstor Pérez, researcher of IRTA, Catalunya: “Research on biodiversity and rice farming, in the Delta of Ebre river with a focus on greenhouse gases and the trade-off between mitigation measures and biodiversity”
- Elisabeth Henrich, SEO/Birdlife Catalunya: “Riet Vell: a project for the promotion of organic rice farming and nature conservation”

Link to webex webinar

www.risoamico.it

Attività organizzata nell'ambito del progetto «Riso Amico+» finanziato da Regione Piemonte nell'ambito del PSR 2014-2020 Misura 16 - Innovazione e cooperazione

mipaaf
Ministero delle politiche agricole alimentari e forestali

REGIONE PIEMONTE

FEASR Fondo europeo agricolo per lo sviluppo rurale:
l'Europa investe nelle zone rurali